Room 255, War Department.
Adjutant General's Office.
Washington, D.C. Sept. 19. 1890.

To the
Superintendent of the Mint.
Philadelphia, Pa.

Sir. I want to procure One Hundred (100) One Dollar ($1.) gold pieces and desire to be informed whether or not they can be obtained at the mint and whether or not National Bank notes will be taken in exchange for the same and if not how they can be secured.

Very Respectfully.
J. L. McGee.
